(For the Roundabout.) The Confession.

I like not inhumation:
It fills me with disgust.
To think of being food for worms,
Then moulding into dust.

Nor do I like cremation:
That roasting in a pan
Is shocking to the feelings
Of any decent man!

And as for cementation:
The plastering device,
I would as lief be buried
In a solid block of ice.

I much prefer translation:
Its clean, and swift, and neat.
But understand, I'm in no haste,
For life is very sweet.

Clay Monument Leaning.

The Henry Clay monument in the Lexington cemetery appears to be doomed unless something is done to prevent its leaning. It has been thought for some time and has been the cause of general comment that the shaft was not plumb. But it seems to be settling more out of plumb.

A short time ago an English engineer, Mr. James Douglas, while passing through Lexington, visited the lofty monument erected to the great orator. He at once remarked that the shaft was not plumb. On further investigation he pronounced it considerably out of plumb. When a reporter learned of the statement he called on Mr. C. S. Bell, the superintendent of the cemetery, and asked what he knew of it. Mr. Bell assured the reporter that the shaft was as plumb as the day it was finished. He said that when one viewed the monument from a certain direction it had that appearance, and that many had been deceived by this. He did say, however, that the ground upon which the base of the monument rested was soft and yielding and that he had especially noted this fact when the foundation was being laid. This may account for the cause of the leaning. The soft earth may have been affected by an underground stream and thus undermined the monument. If such be the case every means should be taken to save the monument, as its loss would be a national one.

This monument, erected to Henry Clay, was completed about 1850. After Henry Clay's death in 1852, and it was decided to erect this to his memory, the contract was awarded to John Haly, of Frankfort. The design of Julius Adams was finally accepted, after much difficulty. At first it was intended to build the monument of stones taken from each State in the Union, but as certain States did not respond promptly it was decided to build it of Kentucky marble entirely. The marble was taken from the magnesia limestone, on Boone creek, near Gribble's Mill. In order to give it a firm foundation the earth was excavated to the depth of 14 feet. By doing this a firm bed of slate about six feet from the surface was passed through and a softer soil reached. The base placed there is 40 feet square. The triangular pieces of marble placed in the shaft are interlocked and cemented in such a manner as to make it impossible to displace them unless the whole monument topple. Standing thus the true shaft is 120 feet high and about 6 1/2 feet in diameter. With the statue of Clay at the apex, this monument is 132 feet high. This statue was made by Garneene, modeled from one of Hart's models of Clay. All told, the monument cost $54,263.

In the vault at the base lies the body of Henry Clay and that of his wife, each in a stone sarcophagus.

Through the iron bars of the vault nobility and presidents, many of the most distinguished men of this and other countries have stood and read those immortal words of Clays engraved on the marble sarcophagus:

"I can, with unshaken confidence, appeal to the Divine Arbitrator for the truth of the declaration that I have been influenced by no impure purpose, no personal aggrandizement, but that, in all my public acts, I have had a sole and single eye, and a warm, devoted heart, directed and dedicated to what, in my best judgment, I believed to be the true interests of my country."

When Clay was buried, July 10, 1852, the body was placed in the western end of the cemetery, in the family lot, where it remained for several years. It was laid there amid a great throng of distinguished people, many of whom had come from Washington City with the body during the ten days' funeral march to Ashland. At Ashland the Rev. E. F. Berkeley, who died in 1896, preached the funeral sermon. The crowd which gathered from every where was only rivaled by the crowd which heard him in 1840 when he made his last great speech in Kentucky after his great compromise measure. It is said that when the head of the procession had reached the cemetery gate the rear was still leaving Ashland.

Mr. S. A. Fackler, Editor of the Minneapolis (Fla.) Hustler, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as a specific for La Grippe, and its exhausting after effects. Tyler & Hemphill and W. McKee Hardie.

A Strange Hallucination.

It is strange the attitude so many people in the city of Havana, Cuba, have taken as regards the sanitary condition measures put in force by the American officers. They object to having their premises inspected and disinfected. The very worst hot-beds of disease seem to be hidden away in private premises, and all sorts of obstacles are thrown in the way of the inspectors.

It is frequently found that horses, cows, dogs, goats and hogs are all under the same roof with the families and in close proximity and with no sewerage.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Sudden Death.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Howard Black, of this county, received a dispatch announcing the sudden death of her father, Mr. L. Westfall, at his home at Hastings, Minn. Only a short time since Mrs. Black returned from a visit to her father, and she left him in the enjoyment of fine health. Of course this dispatch was a rude awakening for her.

When you ask for Dr. Witt's Little Early Riser don't accept a counterfeit or imitation. There are more cases of Piles being cured by this than all others combined. Tyler & Hemphill and W. McKee Hardie.

To insure a happy new year, keep the liver clear and the body vigorous by using Dr. Witt's Little Early Riser, the famous little pills for constipation and liver trouble. Tyler & Hemphill and W. McKee Hardie.

Service Drill.

The North Atlantic Squadron, under Rear Admiral Sampson, has been ordered by the Navy Department to make a cruise in southern waters for service drills and maneuvers. There have been no such maneuvers for several years, as the fleet has never been together in sufficient numbers, even during the war, and it was demonstrated by the war that such service was needed.

Important Decision.

In a case involving a fight over an allowance of extra fees to a Commissioner of the Jefferson Circuit Court, the Court of Appeals rendered a decision, on Saturday, holding that the Circuit Court had no right to make an allowance to the Commissioner in excess of the legal fees allowed under the statute.

This is a very important decision and may lead to a great deal of litigation over fees allowed heretofore.

The smallest things may exert the greatest influence. Dr. Witt's Little Early Riser are unequalled for overcoming constipation and liver troubles. Small pill, best pill, safe pill. Tyler & Hemphill and W. McKee Hardie.

State Historical Rooms.

We are requested to State that Mrs. Jennie C. Morton, Secretary, will be at the rooms of the Historical Society, in the public buildings each day, from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. to receive visitors and give information as to the society.

A Shattered Nervous System.

FINALLY HEART TROUBLE.
Restored to Health by Dr. Miles' Nervine.

M. R. EDWARD HARDY, the jolly manager of Sheppard Co.'s great store at Brainerd, Ill., writes: "I had never been sick a day in my life until in 1890, I got so bad with nervous prostration that I had to give up and commence to doctor. I tried our local physicians and one in Joliet, but none gave me any relief and I thought I was going to die. I became despondent and suffered untold agony. I could not eat, sleep nor rest, and it seemed as if I could not exist. At the end of six months I was reduced to but a shadow of myself, and at last my heart became affected and I was truly miserable. I took six or eight bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine. It gave me relief from the start, and at last a cure, the greatest blessing of my life."

Found Unconscious.

Mrs. Newton Hale, of Kentucky Avenue, West Side, was found unconscious yesterday morning early, near the end of her house. It is supposed she went out in the night to take some clothing from the line, as she had some clothes plus in her hand. She was nearly frozen when found. Her husband is night watchman at Congdon Bros. saw-mill and Mrs. Hale was alone in the house. As we go to press she had not recovered consciousness.

Fined.

The "Board Companies" or "Insurance Combine," consisting of 86 companies, were fined $250 each in the circuit court on Thursday afternoon for conspiring to keep up the rates of insurance.

Court Martial.

Under orders of the President the following officers have been detailed as members of the court-martial to try Commissary General Egan for a breach of military regulations in his assault upon Gen. Miles: Maj. Gen. Wesley Merritt, Maj. Gen. Jas. F. Wade, Maj. Gen. M. C. Butler, Maj. Gen. S. B. M. Young, Brig. Gen. B. T. Frank, Brig. Gen. A. C. Pennington, Brig. Gen. M. R. Randall, Brig. Gen. J. Kline, Brig. Gen. R. Conlin, Col. Peter C. Haines, Col. Geo. L. Gillespie, Col. Chas. R. Suter, Col. F. L. Guenther, Lieut. Col. Geo. B. Davis.

Wants to Go.

Hon. Brutus J. Clay, of Madison county, is applying for appointment as Commissioner to the Paris Exposition. He has the backing of Congressman Davidson, Senator Debow and Ex-Secretary of State Day, of Ohio. That's pretty solid backing and would win nine cases out of ten.

Badly Hurt.

Mr. Wm. Magill was engaged in moving the big safe of Mr. W. L. Coppemith, on Wednesday last, when the akid under it broke, as it was being raised on the dolly, and the safe falling caught Mr. Magill's left foot, mashing several toes.

Dr. Geo. W. Chinn was called and gave necessary surgical attention and young Ma ill is doing nicely.

Close Up.

Mayor Simrall has issued an order requiring all business houses, not specially exempt by law, to close up on Sunday. This was occasioned by the fight waged by the W. C. T. U. and Christian Endeavor Societies on the open saloons.

The fight became so bitter that saloon men were assaulting persons investigating saloons, and the Mayor sees that the only way to prevent further trouble is to compel all to close up.

Will Return.

We learn that Dr. R. H. Goldstein, the celebrated specialist, will return to this city on Friday, January 27, and will be at the Capital Hotel for one week, in place of only two days, as heretofore. He will also make special calls in the city after office hours. Office hours are from 9 a. m. to 12 m. and from 1 to 4 p. m.

Those having defective vision and those whose glasses need adjusting should give the doctor a call.

School of Reform Officers.

At a meeting of the Commissioners of the Kentucky School of Reform, held at Lexington on Tuesday, Prof. E. C. Cook, of the Tennessee Industrial School, was elected Superintendent, and Dr. A. H. Stuart, late Deputy Warden of the Frankfort Penitentiary, was elected Assistant Superintendent and Physician. Dr. Stuart is now a Captain in the Fourth Regiment Kentucky Volunteers, at Anniston, Alabama, which is soon to be mustered out of the service.

Distinguished Man Dead.

Col. John Russell Young, Librarian, of Congress, died suddenly on Tuesday last.

Col. Young had filled many positions of honor and trust in the diplomatic corps and was a talented and able man.

President McKinley made him Librarian July 1, 1897.

Great Reduction.

Cut sales in the monumental business is something unusual, but we intend doing an extraordinary business in the next 90 days, and in order to make it interesting to those in need of work in our former low prices, which is equal to a cut sale. Having a large number of medium sized monuments, headstones and markers, which we have manufactured during the winter months, we wish to dispose of them at cut sale prices and are willing to give the public in general a chance of a life time to get a monument or headstone at one-half actual cost.

Remember this sale is only for 90 days and strictly cash.

D. LEWIS, Manager Frankfort Marble Works, 1w.

Ancient Order of Hibernian's Book Reception.

Cards and dancing was provided for the amusement of the ladies and gentlemen present, and many tipped the light fantastic until 12 o'clock, when all repaired homeward happy in the knowledge of a pleasant evening spent.

Another Good Man Passes Away.

Away back in the '70s Capt. Geo. H. McKinney, of Lincoln county, was a Representative in the Legislature, afterwards Assistant Clerk of the Senate and Clerk of Lincoln Circuit Court. During the civil war he was a Captain in the Federal Army. He was a brave, genial and honorable gentleman. On Sunday night he passed over to the other shore, at the home of his son, Mr. A. A. McKinney, in Stanford, aged 61 years. We knew him well and admired him. Peace to his ashes.

A Nation's Loss.

In the death of Hon. Nelson Dingley, Representative from the Second District of Maine, the State of Maine and the nation at large has sustained a heavy loss. He was a man of fine ability and was a pure, clean man in every relation of life.

He was the recognized leader of the Republican party upon the floor of Congress, and was accepted as an undoubted authority upon many weighty financial and other measures.

His death occurred on Friday night, and was due to pneumonia supervening upon an acute attack of la grippe.

The Right Course.

At the union service, on Sunday night, held at the Baptist Church, just before the close of the service, an earnest protest was adopted, by a unanimous vote, against the seating of the Mormon Congressman from Utah.

This is the right course to pursue, and if the people all over the country will only adopt this plan, the affront to the good of people of the country will be properly resisted.

Date of Important Events.

The calendar for 1899 gives these important facts:

"Washington's Birthday comes on Wednesday, and Memorial day and July 4th will be celebrated on Tuesdays. Christmas will come on Monday, Ash Wednesday on February 16th, Shrove Sunday is March 12th, Good Friday, March 31st and Easter, April 2nd. The new Congressmen will assume their prerogatives on Saturday, March 4th. May day is to be Monday."

Grippe Was Prevalent as Early as the Time of Hippocrates in the Fifth Century.

There are many who think that "the grip," as it is commonly called, is nothing more or less than a bad cold. This is a grave mistake, as there is no doubt that it is a miasmatic, infectious and contagious malady, a form of epidemic catarrh, more or less severe, according to circumstances.

It was regarded as early as Hippocrates' time, in the fifth century, B. C., and since has appeared under a variety of names in different countries. In Russia it is the Chinese catarrh, in Germany the Russian pest, in Italy the German disease and in France it is popularly known as the Italian fever, and sometimes as the Spanish Catarrh—each nation, apparently, blaming the scourge to its most despised enemy.

In France it was at first called "coqueluche," because the sufferers were cups close over their heads. Afterwards the Italian physicians named it "Influenza," and in later years French doctors gave it the name of "la grippe," which we, with a natural dislike for anything with an unhandy handle to it, Anglified to plain "grip."

The contagion is very little understood and depends for its conveyance apparently upon some peculiar condition of the atmosphere, spreading with remarkable rapidity. When it broke out in London in 1847 it appeared in a single day over every part of that great city and affected upwards of 100,000 persons. The visitations of the malady last but six or seven weeks, but have been at times very severe.

Fund Raised.

The people of New York have honored themselves as well as Col. Waring by raising $100,000 for the benefit of his family, instead of erecting a monument to his memory, as the family needs bread more than Col. Waring does a stone.

Still in the Ring.

I am still doing business at the old stand. Come and see me with your country produce, such as chickens, ducks, turkeys, eggs, rabbits, squirrels, etc. I will pay you the highest cash prices. Bring along your furs, &c., I want them and you want the money.

New Thing.

We publish an advertisement of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in our columns this issue, and wish to say to our patrons that we believe this preparation is worthy of a trial by any person suffering from this agonizing complaint. We honestly believe this preparation will do for you all the manufacturers claim for it.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is prepared by the well-known and reliable firm of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, and from our long experience in a business sense, with this firm as advertisers, we feel safe in saying, that they would not place on the market a preparation for the cure of Dyspepsia unless they had a remedy of the highest merit, and conscientiously believe it would cure this well-known and almost universal complaint.

We further add that if this preparation is equal to the other well known remedies which they make, viz: DeWitt's Little Early Risers, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, and One Minute Cough Cure, it will speedily win its way into public favor.

We cheerfully and heartily give our personal endorsement to this concern, and the reliability of the goods they manufacture, which have been largely the means of their success, and in writing this voluntary endorsement on our part, we feel that we are simply performing a duty which we owe to our patrons.

Appointed.

Our old and valued friend, Maj. J. H. Ashcraft, of Paducah, has been appointed on the Shiloh Battlefield Commission to succeed the late Gen. Don Charles Buell.

Major Ashcraft was in the battle of Shiloh and is peculiarly fitted for his new duties.

New Telephone Service.

The Frankfort Telephone Company, which was organized by Mr. Woodford Longmoor, and whose interests are being pushed by him, is meeting with marked success and deservedly so. Similar institutions are now in successful operation in all of our surrounding cities, in fact throughout the whole State, offering to the citizens a high class telephone service at a reduced rate.

The Frankfort Company guarantees the highest class service, their plant will be fitted up with all modern improvements. At Central Station they will use copper wire and the highest type of modern instrument with long distance transmitter, with adjustable arm and 500 ohm induction coil, thus assuring its patrons the very best service.

Its social convenience and its saving of time and trouble to the housekeeper cannot be calculated. For police protection, fire alarm and in urgency calls to the doctor, every one must appreciate its value. The company offers their service at $12 for a residence, $15 for an office and $20 for a business house.

No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from lack of grippe if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. For sale by J. W. Gayle of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. We are willing to trust in his answer.

For twenty-five years doctors have prescribed our Emulsion for paleness, weakness, nervous exhaustion, and for all diseases that cause loss in flesh. Its creamy color and its pleasant taste make it especially useful for thin and delicate children.

No other preparation of cod-liver oil is like it. Don't lose time and risk your health by taking something unknown and untried. Keep in mind that SCOTT'S EMULSION has stood the test for a quarter of a century.

The Frankfort Roundabout

Entered at the postoffice at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, JANUARY 21, 1899.

New Postoffice.

A new postoffice has been established at the store of Mr. John C. Quire, just at the Old Crow Distillery premises, five miles from this city, in Woodford county. The postoffice is to be known as Quire, as the department informed Mr. Quire that the name "Crow" or "Crow Valley," as he wished it called, was too similar to the name of another post-office.

Mr. Quire is a clever, hustling young merchant and will make an acceptable postmaster.

Female Presiding Officer.

For the first time in the history of the country a woman has presided over the session of a legislative body.

In the Kansas Legislature, last week, Mrs. Lee, Representative from Arrapahoe county, was called to the chair by Speaker Smith, when he wished to speak upon a measure then before the House.

Mrs. Lee, while temporarily embarrassed, as the day wore on, soon recovered her equilibrium, and made a very good presiding officer.

We believe this to be the first instance of the kind in the history of the country. We doubt not that the presence of a few good women in our Legislatures would make the male members much better Representatives and prevent much disagreeable wrangling, and we are not by any means an advocate of what is commonly denominated "women's rights."

A Solemn Scene.

"The paths of glory but lead to the grave." Such is the solemn lesson that is to be learned by death, not only of the lowly, but of the great and those who strive to attain to high honor and glory.

The funeral of Hon. Nelson A. Dingley, Representative in Congress from Maine was a solemn and affecting scene. Never since the death of Hon. Win. Kelly, of Pennsylvania, has such a funeral been held.

The Hall of the House was packed with Congressmen, high dignitaries from other countries, the President, the Cabinet, the Supreme Court and a vast throng of plain people came together to render a tribute to the memory of the honored and beloved dead.

High honors had come to him as a result of honest and clean endeavor; but death is no respecter of persons.

The lesson for us all to learn is that we should so strive, in life, to do our duty that, as he who has gone, we may be remembered for the good and great deeds and have no stain of sin and wrong to mar that remembrance.

As the nation stood reverently by the bier of Nelson Dingley, it could with truth have said "there was a great and good man."

Another "Independent" Plays Out.

As is usually the case when a lot of people get so disgruntled with the churches and rush off to establish a "Church of the People," a "Free Church," or something of that kind, things go with a rush while the enthusiasm of something new is on, but when the steady strain and pull of honest endeavor comes on, they begin to stagger, get weak and finally flicker out, just because there is nothing solid and substantial back of it all—no real love, faith, patience and unswerving effort.

A fine illustration is at hand in the meteoric career of Rev. Thomas Dixon, of the People's Church, New York.

He was so thoroughly disgusted because plain every day Christians did not think that the pulpit was the proper place for a discussion of politics, that he rushed out and established "People's Churches" at several places, finally drifting to New York and becoming the head of such a concern there.

He has at last discovered, as they all do, sooner or later, that the sor-

An innovation.

The Owingsville Outlook has the following:

"The first negro jury ever summoned to try a case in Bath county, was that which did duty in Magistrate Charles Wilson's Court, in Bethel district. Mr. Wilson had tried several cases, all of which he thought was so plain that the average juror ought to have no difficulty in arriving at a verdict, but in all of which juries of white men had failed to agree. Whereupon he dismissed the white jurors and had summoned a jury composed entirely of colored men, and proceeded to again try the cases which had caused so much aggravation in the way of 'hung' juries. The colored jurors were very proud of the honor shown them, and in each case returned a verdict, and satisfactory to all parties concerned. Magistrate Wilson is a Democrat."

rows and troubles of life need the panacea of the old-fashioned gospel of Jesus of Nazareth rather than the rant of iconoclasts and free thinkers; and such a church ship as his sooner or later goes to pieces on the rocks of good, hard, common sense and practical Christianity that meets the yearnings of humanity with a balm for every wound.

He has resigned and will devote his energies and talents, of which he has a good supply, to the lecture platform.

Sunday Special Train.

A special train passed through this city on Sunday afternoon, just before 5 o'clock, over the L. & N., carrying an opera troupe. The passage of the train caused a rumor that the Short Line trains were all to pass here owing to the high water, &c. This was a mistake as that line had not met with any trouble from the heavy rains.

Electric Railway.

The city of Carrollton, at the mouth of the Kentucky, is to have an electric railway. The fund necessary to build the bridge across the Kentucky river to connect it with Prestonsville has been raised and an eastern firm has guaranteed the building of the road. We believe it is to run to Milton, just opposite to the city of Madison, Ind.

It will no doubt be a paying investment.

To the Public.

We are authorized to guarantee every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be as represented and if not satisfactory after two-thirds of the contents have been used, will refund the money to the purchaser. There is no better medicine made for grippe, colds and whooping cough. Price, 25c and 50c per bottle. Try it. J. W. Gayle.

Foolhardy.

A hotel-keeper in Havana had so little sense as to raise the Spanish flag over his place of business on Sunday. It came near producing a riot. The excited Cubans commenced throwing stones at the flag and doing other things to show their disapproval.

A force of American soldiers double-quickened to the place and lowered the flag, thus quieting the people.

I Want to See You.

As it is necessary that I make a change in my business, all persons having work in my hands are requested to call and get the same, and all those indebted to me are notified to come forward and settle at once. 20-1t. W. L. COOPER SMITH.

Colonization.

The periodical colonization scheme is being put forward again by certain colored leaders in Tennessee and Georgia. The head of the new syndicate is located at Chattanooga, Tenn. We doubt if it lasts any longer than such things do, and that is until all the money in sight is used up.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Congress will convene in the Association parlors on Monday evening next at 7:30 o'clock.

Many of our best local musicians have kindly consented to take part in the musicale, which will be given at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening of next week at 8 o'clock. (See programme elsewhere in this issue). An admission of twenty-five cents will be charged, the proceeds to be applied on the Association debt carried over from the second year. In view of this it is hoped that the members of the local Y. M. C. A., and its many friends as well, will manifest their interest in the welfare of the institution and their appreciation of the generous services of those participating in the program by purchasing tickets and attending the musicale.

The "State Day" meeting held last Sunday afternoon proved interesting and helpful. Information concerning the growth and present status of the Association movement in Kentucky, and the valuable work of supervision and extension carried on by the State Executive Committee in our cities, towns, and colleges and among our Kentucky soldier boys was presented in brief and interesting form by several of the young men. Following these and other exercises, Hon. Chas. Finley gave a most excellent address, in which he explained the relationship existing between the local and State work, and the obligation to support and encourage the latter imposed upon every local member. Mr. H. V. Hyatt rendered a vocal solo.

Thir! Kentucky in Cuba.

Under the orders of the War Department the Third Kentucky Volunteer Infantry left Columbus, Ga. on Tuesday, in three sections, via the Central, the Georgia and Alabama, and the Southern Railroads, reaching Savannah, Ga., on Wednesday morning.

The regiment was immediately embarked on board the transport ship Minnewaska, and now are doubtless at Matanzas, Cuba, the point to which they were ordered to go.

Thus this quiet, well-behaved and first-class regiment has been awarded the privilege of going to Cuba. They went to their work as a regiment without any splinter or kicking, from the outset; they did their duty like soldiers and not like spoiled children; they knew that a soldier's life was no picnic and did not howl when they found hardships and trials.

Their Colonel and other officers were modest, earnest and efficient men, and the government has recognized these facts and awarded them their recompense.

Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Louisville, Terrized by the Awful Scourge. All the Centers of Population Affected.

The depressing effects of the present epidemic of Grip are apparent everywhere. Teachers, clerks, business men, mechanics, laborers, street car drivers, school children, police officers and even the doctors all furnish victims by the hundreds.

No remedy yet discovered can show results equal to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. It quickly overcomes the excessive exhaustion, invigorates the appetite and assists nature to throw off the deadly microbes from the system. In times of epidemic like the present it should be taken as a preventative of disease.

"Grip had left me a physical wreck; weak, helpless and miserable. I could not eat; could not sleep; could not gain any strength, and had nervous prostration of the worst kind. Our home physician could not help me and I commenced using Dr. Miles' Nervine. The first night's sleep that I had in four months came as the result of two first doses. When I had taken two bottles I felt better than I had before in years, and continued to improve until I was entirely cured."

The funeral took place on Thursday at Lexington, and the remains were buried in the cemetery in that city.

HOLLISTER—At the home of her husband, in Olney, Ill., Wednesday, January 4, Mrs. Lizzie B. Hollister, aged 35 years.

Mrs. Hollister was the daughter of the late Major Jas. It. and Mrs. Mary T. Page, and a niece of Mrs. J. N. Crutcher, of this city.

Mrs. Hollister was married to Mr. Chas. Hollister in Olney, Ill., in January, 1885, and left one daughter aged 10 years.

She was a great sufferer for several years and her physicians finally told her that the only hope of saving her life was by an operation, and that a slender one. With a bravery that was sublime she assented, fully realizing that her hopes were almost nothing.

Having united with the Presbyterian Church some fourteen years before, her life was that of a consistent and earnest Christian, and when the hour of death came it found her calmly and patiently ready for the great change. She only lived one day after the operation, then quietly went to sleep in the Saviour's arms.

Pleurisy

Pleurisy and pneumonia are frequently developed, in a very short space of time, from a common cold; and, if such an acute inflammation of the lungs is not promptly allayed, the worst may happen. With the aid of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, however, you need not have any fear; for this great remedy speedily subdues the inflammation, eases the pain in breathing and always effects a cure in a wonderfully short time.

By a letter received from him we learn that Lieut. Hugh Rodman, of the U. S. S. Raleigh, who was with Dewey in his grand victory at Manila, and distinguished himself, is on the way home, via the Suez canal, and hopes to reach here some time early in May.

Mrs. Rodman will visit China, Japan and Honolulu and also reach home with her husband in May.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of la grippe. During the epidemic of la grippe a few years ago when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracts any tendency of a cold or la grippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for bad colds and la grippe. Every bottle warranted. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

Cure for La Grippe.

Take a pill containing four grains of acetanilide every three hours. This is guaranteed as a sure cure by the Doctor in Charge of the Crib Orchard Keeley Cure.

Brought Home for Burial.

Mr. Ernest L. McCoun, the young man who killed himself in Louisville on Tuesday, while laboring under temporary insanity, was a son of Mr. W. T. McCoun, of Farmdale, this county, a grandson of Mr. Benedict Farmer, and a nephew of Mr. Ben T. Farmer, of this city. The remains were brought here for burial on Thursday, the funeral services being held at the chapel at the cemetery, conducted by Rev. J. S. Lyons, of Louisville. Mr. McCoun was a popular young man, about 29 years of age, and had many warm friends at his old home. Much sympathy is felt for the sorely bereft young wife, children, parents and loved ones.

Mr. McCoun was a member of Denolay Commandery, Knights Templar, of Louisville. The following members of Hiram Lodge No. 4, of this city, acted as pallbearers: Henry Lindsey, Paul Sawyer, Guy Barrett, Charles M. Ward, Frank Cannon, Mason Barrett, Frank Keyes, and Frank G. Stagg.

Horrible agony is caused by Piles, Burns and Skin Diseases. These are immediately relieved and quickly cured by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of worthless imitations. Tyler & Hemphill and W. McKee Hardie.

Appointed Agent.

We are glad to know when Frankfort boys come to the front in any way that is right. Another of our boys has been appointed to a position of trust. Mr. Fred S. Grinstead, son of Mr. R. L. Grinstead, of the West Side, who has been night clerk in the Lexington express office, has been appointed as agent of the Adams Express Co., at Richmond, Ky. Fred is a fine young man.

La Grippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. Shepherd, Publisher Agricultural Journal and Advertiser, Eldon, Mo., says: "No one will be disappointed in using the Minute Cough Cure for La Grippe. Pleasant to take, quick to act." Tyler & Hemphill and W. McKee Hardie.

"Don't Tell Them where You Found Me."

The above is the name of a new song issued on the following incident: The Rev. Thos. Delaney, when Chaplain of a large State Penitentiary, while passing through the Hospital Ward was called to the bedside of a dying convict. The last words of this unfortunate youth were: "Father, I see you do not know me, but you know me well and whilst his hands were clasped in mine his last request was made: "In my dying moment promise me what I will ask." I here gave him my word; he then revealed his parentage who thought him dead. "Now give me your word that you will send my body home, but don't tell them where you found me." I sent the body home to another State, but they never knew where I found him. THE GROENE MUSIC PUBLISHING CO., 32 E. Fifth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, will send the above song to any address for 20 cents in silver or stamps, regular price 50 cents.
